FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PTK HOLDS SPRING INDUCTION

(Lamar, Colorado, March 9, 2010) Lamar Community College's Beta Eta Gamma chapter of the Phi Theta Kappa honorary inducted 18 new members during the spring induction ceremony held last week. This is one of the largest groups ever to be inducted in the chapter. New inductees include (left to right): Richard Carpenter, Tiffany Guymon, Julie Vandiver, Dustin Burton, Lydia Coe, Alisha Rose, Felicia McKitterick, Ashton Krueger, Andrea Duffy, Andrea Figlio, Brenda Brown, Tawnie Buxton, Joshua Emick, Elisabeth Paulsen. Not pictured are LaDonna Mason, Sarah Sigrist, and Casey Plowman.

After a welcome from LCC President John Marrin, Curtis Turner, dean of Academic Programs, was the guest speaker. His humorous speech encouraged students to use the scientific method when making future decisions.

Phi Theta Kappa is an international scholastic honor society to recognize and encourage scholarship among two-year college students. The Beta Eta Gamma Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa promotes academic excellence at LCC and is active on campus. To be eligible, students must have a 3.5 grade-point average after completing 12 or more credit hours of college-level work, be currently enrolled, and pursuing an AA, AS, or AGS degree. Induction of new members occurs every fall and spring semester. For more information on PTK at LCC, contact David Northrup at 335.1546 or Kelly Emick at 336.1532.
