TRIPLE THREAT LEAD ANTELOPE STAMPEDE

(Lamar, Colorado; October 5, 2010) The Lamar Community College Men’s Team had an outstanding weekend at the LCC Antelope Stampede on October 1-3. Leading the way were three individual champions: Carter Coble in Steer Wrestling, Chase Reed in Bull Riding, and Tyler Schnauffer in Team Roping (Header). Also doing well were Tyler Matorocci placing fifth in Tie-down Roping and second in the first go-round of Bull Riding and Conner Hanley and Stetson Mitchell with a eighth place finish in the first go-round of Team Roping. “It was outstanding effort,” commented LCC Rodeo Coach Fred Sherwood. “There are only seven men’s events, so for a college to win three is a quite a feat. And then to do it at your hometown rodeo makes it really special. We finished second in the team standings with 455 points to Gillette College’s 460. That’s as close as it gets.” The team travels to Cheyenne, WY on Oct. 15-17 to complete its fall schedule.
