

Press Release

LAMAR
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

For more information, contact:
Anne-Marie Crampton
Director of Communication
anne-marie.crampton@lamarcc.edu
719.336.1520

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TRADITIONS GETS TASTIER

(Lamar, Colorado; April 21, 2008) Lamar Community College will host its fourth annual Taste of Traditions event on May 2, 2008 in LCC's Wellness Center. The event will again highlight Cinco de Mayo and embrace cultures from around the world. This year, those attendees may sample foods from Africa, Asian, Europe and Latin America beginning at 5:30 p. Entertainment will begin at 6:30 and will include:

Orgullo de los Niños (Pride of the Children) a Lincoln Elementary School student group performing Mexican Ballet Folklorico dances, directed by Gloria Gamboa.

Ballet de Voces Unidas, including Kenia Vazquez and other local Ballet Folklorico dancers will share dances from Chihuahua and Jalisco, Mexico.

LCC Mongolian students performing songs from their homeland and joining with the rest of the Multicultural Club to offer a Parade of International Fashion.

Completing the evening's program, Denver-based, Danza Grupo Mitotilitzli will present dances and ceremonies of the Aztec people.

Cinco De Mayo – Taste of Traditions event tickets are available for $10.00 each and include entertainment and dinner. Contact Rochelle Wallace 336.1626/rochelle.wallace@lamarcc.edu or Robert Vazquez 336.1535/robert.vasquez@lamarcc.edu for more information or to purchase tickets. Seating is limited.

#

#

#